III Conditions for Travel & Living Expense Reimbursement

Receipts: Required for lodging, airfare, rental cars, tolls and all single expenditures over $25 except M&IE.

Eligibility:

Business Travel: Travel & Living expenses are only payable when travel is more than 12 hours duration and is more than 50 miles from the WVDP site.

Temporary Assignments: Travel & Living expenses are only payable to individuals maintaining two (2) residences; one (1) Permanent Residence located more than 50 miles from the WVDP site and one (1) temporary residence within 50 miles of the WVDP site. Reimbursements for travel & living expenses will be limited to one (1) year for subcontract personnel.

Personal Leave: For subcontractors on “Temporary Assignments,” M&IE is not allowed for personal leave or vacation exceeding one-half the prescribed daily working hours (e.g., 5 hours for a 10 hour work day). Lodging costs will continue to be reimbursed if monthly rates apply.

Non-Work Days: If the subcontractor’s assignment requires stay over a weekend or holiday, they may receive reimbursement for living expenses. Per diem will not be paid for non-work days when the subcontractor is on personal leave the day preceding or following the non-workday.

Return Trips Home: Subcontractor employees on “Temporary Assignments greater than 30 days” may be reimbursed for periodic trips to their Permanent Residence not to exceed a frequency of once every 3 weeks, provided that a minimum of 30 days remain in the assignment. M&IE is not reimbursable while at the employee’s permanent residence. Lodging costs are not reimbursed for either the en route or the “at home” portion of home leave, however, lodging costs at the temporary work location will continue to be reimbursed if monthly rates apply.

Note: Subcontractors are expected to exercise the same care in incurring expenses that a prudent person would exercise if expending personal funds. Individuals will be responsible for excess costs as a result of personal preference or convenience. Allowances in this policy are maximums and should not be viewed as entitlements. In addition, if an expense is paid by CHBWV and later determined to be in violation of the above guidelines, the subcontractor shall reimburse CHBWV for all expenses that are deemed unallowable in accordance with this guideline and the Federal Travel Regulations.

Any exceptions to these guidelines shall be approved in advance by the CHBWV Procurement Department.
