

Main Process Plant Building (MPPB) Controlled Deconstruction Update

Week of April 3, 2023

Deconstruction – Deconstruction of the Ventilation Exhaust Cell

The Department of Energy's West Valley Demonstration Project (WVDP) in New York began the deconstruction of the Main Plant's Ventilation Exhaust Cell, which was used to filter exhaust air from reprocessing operations before being discharged through the Plant's ventilation exhaust stack.

