

Main Process Plant Building (MPPB) Controlled Deconstruction Update

Week of November 13, 2023

Hot Cells

The Department of Energy's West Valley Demonstration Project (WVDP) continues the deconstruction of the Main Plant Process Building. Workers have safely removed several cells, walls, ceilings, and labs on the west side of the building. Workers continue their work on the south half of the Chemical Process Cell northeast wall.

