

Main Process Plant Building (MPPB) Controlled Deconstruction Update

Week of April 1, 2024

Extraction Cell

The Department of Energy's West Valley Demonstration Project (WVDP) uses a heavy-duty excavator with a hydraulic grapple to deconstruct the Extraction Chemical Room wall as part of the ongoing demolition of the Main Plant Process Building. This cell was used during fuel reprocessing operations.

